

COUNCIL MEETING OF JUNE 19, 2017

The second regular monthly meeting of the Mannington City Council with Mayor James Taylor presiding was held Monday, June 19, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. Council members present were Denny Efaw, Kenneth Fletcher, Charlie Kolb, Richard Stevens and Becky Williams.

City Clerk Michele Fluharty read the minutes of the previous meeting and they stood approved as read.

In department reports, Chief of Police David James gave the PD monthly report. He said they made ten arrests and received 434 calls for assistance.

Superintendent Ted Nice detailed all the jobs his crew has worked on during June. He said the water meters that are not reading electronically are being checked now and a list is being made of those that need replaced.

Under Old Business, the only item on the agenda was the second reading of Ordinance #429 which amends the zoning regulations. Fluharty said after reviewing the zoning ordinance, she found that there must be a public hearing before the final reading so it will be scheduled for the July 3rd meeting. Taylor read the ordinance. Fletcher made the motion to accept the second reading of Ordinance #429. Stevens seconded the motion and all approved.

In New Business, Taylor said Skip Horner's term on the Planning Commission expires this month and he recommends that he be reappointed. Stevens made the motion to appoint Horner to another 3-year term on the Planning Commission. Efaw seconded the motion and it carried.

The outstanding bills were reviewed. Efaw made the motion to pay the bills as the money is available. Fletcher seconded the motion and all approved.

Mayor Taylor told Stevens that it had been a pleasure serving with him and his knowledge and expertise had been invaluable.

Fletcher asked about the Nwoko Columba properties in town and Taylor said he would bring him into court.

Fletcher made the motion to adjourn. Efaw seconded the motion and it carried. The meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.
